FRIDAY AVENIA, JANUARY 30.

RETIESD FOR REPAIRS - All Washington is talking of a happening at the latest of the White House receptions. A lady prominent in society, the married daughter of a wealthy western Senator, who is a widower, was the beroine or victim. She is noted for the magnificence of her extreme decollete cordecollete indeed. The bodice was simply a piece of flusy lace and a small bit of satin, not much wider than a waist belt, with a parrow shou der strap, which supported the whole garment. The lady removed her wraps in the cloakroom and entered the blue room on the arm of her father. They passed down the line of the receiving party and mingled with the guests in the reception room proper. A noted Pailadelphian had just offered his arm to the lady preparatory to a prom-enade through the east-room when the accident occurred. The frail support that held the waist in place over the plump white shoulders gave way, and the loosened protection of lace and ribbons slid down over the arms in a hopeless, awkward manner. The New York Sun correspondent says that had it not been for the large bouquet of roses that was carried by the lady and utilized as a screen, the predicament would have proved even embarraseing. The Pull-adelphian released the lady and she retired to the clcak-room ' for repairs."

MEDICINAL:

When an infant my body broke out all over with an eruption or rash, which became more aggravated as I grew older. Every noted physician in our section was tried or consulted. When I came of age I visited Hot Springs, Ark., and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had failed I determined to try S. S. S., and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible Eczema was all gone, not a sign left; my general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease.
